

THE GREAT CARE CO-OP (IRELAND)

info@tgcc.ie w: www.tgcc.ie

Twitter @GreatCareCo-op

*Pursuit Of Decent Work, Equality
And Human Rights: A Lifetime
Journey For Domestic Workers*

Mariaam Bhatti, Co-founder, The Great Care Co-op (Twitter: @bmariaam)

CONTENTS

Who we are

Campaigning, Techniques and engagement with the ILO C189

The Story Of Us Today

Impact

Context And Background

Examples Our Activities To Engage Domestic Workers

Quilt-Making 12 weeks

Sunday Meetings & Capacity Building

Women's Mini Marathon (fundraising opportunity)

Weekends Away for Strategic Planning

Political Participation & Issue-based Meetings

Supporting Other Campaigns

End Of Year Gala Dinner and Fundraiser

Our Successful Campaigns

I. Criminalisation Of Forced Labour

2. Diplomatic Immunity – Policy Change by the Department of Foreign Affairs

Getting Au Pairs Recognised As Workers

Ratification Of ILO C189 – 7
year campaign

SETTING UP THE CO-OP

Migrant women create Ireland's first carers' co-operative

Co-founder Maria Jikijela says the group will 'reinvest all profits in the carers'

© Thu, Jul 23, 2020, 02:55

Kitty Holland Social Affairs Correspondent

🔊 LISTEN NOW 03:35

Maria Jikijela, co-founder and director of The Great Care Co-op. Photograph: Dara Mac Dónaill/The Irish Times

 Ireland's first carers' co-operative, founded and led by migrant women, will provide "quality care and quality jobs" in a way profit-based agencies cannot.

FUNDING FROM
ESF

SOCIAL ENTERPRISE
TRAINING
GRADUATION

2-YEAR JOURNEY OF SETTING UP

IMPACT

- Empowerment
- Equipped to support others
- Proud to be an example
- Dublin City Council Award, recent funding Rethink Ireland
- We hope to continue growing and to mentor others in future

THANK YOU FOR THE INVITE

For more information, contact or follow us on:

Email: info@tgcc.ie

website: www.tgcc.ie

Twitter: @GreatCareCo-op

Facebook: The Great Care Co-op Ireland